

... Ann Landers

(Continued from Page 29) he at least one working set in each family and I see no evidence that you have any.

Dear Ann Landers: What do you think of a man who has a job as bookkeeper in a credit union and goes around telling everybody (after three martinis) who owes what?

This is the situation in our organization and it is more than I can stand. I am a member of the credit union but I don't owe them anything. Several of my friends do, however, and I am furious on their account. It is embarrassing for one friend in particular to have it known that he is in debt up to the legal limit. Should I tip off the chief executive who would have the man removed at once? Frankly, I detest him but I don't want to be responsible for a family man losing his job. Your advice is wanted.—BIX

Dear Bix: If "Loudmouth" has been talking through his martinis for several months, his days are numbered. Keep quiet and let one of the injured parties give him the axe.

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a 13-year-old girl who has a problem spelled M-o-t-h-e-r. I love her but she is driving me nuts. Ever since I was a small child my mother had to help me do everything, whether it was homework, sewing on a button, selecting books from the library, or choosing the right dress to wear to a party.

Just now mother asked me to look up a number in the phone book. I looked it up and she said, "That doesn't sound correct." She then went and looked up the number herself. I feel as if I can't do anything right. I get boiling mad when she stands right behind me when I dry glasses or silverware. Lots of times she dries things over after I have finished.

Please tell me what to do. It's a real problem.—HELPED TOO MUCH

Dear Helped Too Much: You bet it's a real problem

The bride-elect was graduated from North High School and attended El Camino College. She is employed in the Chief Engineer's Dept. of Pacific Telephone Co. in Los Angeles.

The future bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth E. Wood, 2708 Alma Ave., Manhattan Beach, was graduated from Morning-side High School and attended El Camino. He is employed by Nortronics in Palos Verdes.

The wedding will take place in February 1965.

and I hope your mother reads my answer and pays attention to it.

Of course, a mother can dry a glass better, or sew a hem straighter—she's had years of experience. Far more important than the shiny glass or the straight hem is the feeling of achievement that comes from doing something on one's own.

Accepted at Marymount

Nancy O. Drumright daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Drumright of Torrance, has been accepted as a member of the sophomore class at Marymount College for the 1964-65 academic season.

A transfer student from Mount St. Mary's College in Los Angeles, Miss Drumright is preparing for a career in the field of education.

Reporting as first year students at Marymount will be Kathleen Louise Moore, daughter of A. Allen Moore, and Irene E. Ryan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Ryan, all of Torrance.

A graduate of Marymount High School in Palos Verdes, Miss Moore served as president of the Vocal Club, and will major in the field of music.

Miss Ryan attended Bishop Montgomery High School where she was a member of the National Honor Society. She is planning a career in art.

Christmas Bridge Party Tomorrow

MRS. GARY LEROY RICE ... Former Linda DeGregory (Portrait by Seeman)

DeGregory-Rice Names Linked in Baptist Rite

Miss Linda Lee DeGregory, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony DeGregory, 18117 S. Berendo, Gardena, became the bride of Gary Leroy Rice, in a two o'clock ceremony on June 21 at the First Baptist Church in Torrance. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond E. Rice, 1220 Kornblum, Torrance.

As the 500 guests assembled, Mrs. Pat Ouwendijk played a medley of nuptial music and accompanied Mike Powers, who sang "Through the Years" and "Wedding Prayers."

Mr. DeGregory walked to the altar with his daughter, who wore an Aida original wedding gown of silk organza, designed as a floor-length sheath with a full overskirt, caught up in the back, falling into a cathedral train. The bodice, which had a Sabrina neckline, and the skirt were adorned with French lace motifs and seed pearls. A pearl tiara held the illusion veil and the bridal bouquet was of white roses and stephanotis.

Miss Nancy Behar, in a long Nile green organza gown, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids Misses Sandra Broughton, Maria Bohannon, Sandra Rice and Carolyn Park wore floor length gowns of maize organza. Their bouquets were of maize carnations.

Lisa Kaye and Sheri G. Stephenson, in long white organza gowns, carried white baskets of maize petals, in their roles as flower girls.

Norman Gar. Rickard stood as best man and ushers were Darrel Kelley, Tomas Sackman, Ken Cummins, and Richard Connet.

A reception was held in the Fellowship hall with Miss Sheryl Kelley registering the guests.

The honeymoon was spent at Lake Arrowhead and Palm Springs. The new home is in Torrance.

The bride, a Gardena High graduate, is a secretary for the Air Force in Inglewood.

Her husband was graduated from Torrance High and is attending El Camino College. He is employed by Aerospace in Inglewood.
